Theatre outing: Lord of the Flies

1S, accompanied by Beth Bonini and Nick Park

Corn Exchange, Newbury Wednesday, February 8, 7:45 p.m.

Dear Parents,

The Corn Exchange in Newbury is presenting a play of William Golding's Lord of the Flies next week. As many of you will know, this literary classic has been a required text for 1S this year. We will be analysing the novel in Book Club during the next few weeks, and the opportunity to compare and contrast the novel with the play will be hugely beneficial to the pupils.

We hope that all 1S pupils will be able to participate in this special (and fortuitous) opportunity.

Questions about theatre experiences have been known to come up in scholarship interviews!

Arrangements:

Pupils will have supper at school, followed by prep.

We will leave for the theatre no later than 7:15 p.m.

As it is an evening performance, and thus a late night, it is strongly encouraged that the children board at school that evening. If you do not want your child to board, please inform Beth Bonini as soon as possible. beth.bonini@earthlink.net

Children who are not boarding will need to be picked up at the Corn Exchange at the end of the performance. (Please contact the Corn Exchange for exact finish time.)

School uniform will be worn to the theatre.

Cost:

The tickets are £10 pounds, and there will be a small charge for travel costs.

The above costs will be added to the fee bill.

Children might like to bring enough pocket money to buy a drink or ice cream at the interval, but this is entirely optional.
